

Hanson Garages - Refurbishment Building Assessment Form

Understanding your requirements.

In order to assist you with any refurbishment work to your building, we would ask you to take some photographs so we can identify, as accurately as possible, the requirements. As a starting point we would request photographs of your building as a whole, showing the garage in situ and its surrounding area. The following illustration shows where we would like the initial photographs taken from.

External photos example

Internal Photos example

